Mr. Matthews moved to his new home the first of this week. His new farm is considered one of the best producing farms in the town of Stowe and carries 45 cows. Mr. and Mrs. John Parsons will work for Mr. and Mrs. Matthews the coming year, the former having been employed by Mark Smith for some time. Mr. Matthews expects to install a milking machine at once.

DO YOU SUFFER FROM BACKACHE?

When your kidneys are weak and torpid they do not properly perform their functions; your back aches and you do not feel like doing much of anything. You are likely to be despondent and to borrow trouble, just as if you hadn't enough already. Don't be a victim any longer. The old reliable medicine, Hood's Sarsaparilla, gives strength and tone to the kidneys and builds up the whole system. Get it today.

Grocery Firm Change

Carroll T. Morrill has sold his grocery business, recently purchased of H. Waite & Son, to A. W. Waite. Mr. Waite thoroughly understands the grocery business, having been until about a year ago a partner in the firm of H. Waite & Sons. The store was closed last week Thursday to take inventory of stock but is now open and doing business as usual. Mr. Morrill will continue in the meat business.

Stupendous Checker Game

(Washington Star)

Dear Editor—I wish to call attention to the fact that while in most respects your news is liberal and exact, there is something you are missing, I am wondering how you could be so indifferent to our intellectual neighborhood! You write about the contest on the turf or in the ring. But, up to now, your sportin' page has never said a thing about the mighty battle where two giants were arrayed; I mean the game of checkers me and Ezzy Slocum played.

'Twas him as sent the challenge. Leastways, he was heard to say that he could beat Si Perkins playin' checkers any day. My last name bein' Perkins an' my first bein' Si. Of course I couldn't pass the base insinuation by. Although our feelin' was intense, our speech was never rude. We calmly met the gaze of the assembled multitude. That stood on barrels and on crates an' even on the shelves. To see how me an' Ezzy Slocum would acquit ourselves.

I made a swift attack an' jumped him all along the line. I romped around his king row purty much like it was mine. O, you talk about your polo or your golf or your baseball! I want to say the game that we put up 'ud beat 'em all! I am writin' to remind you that in this enlightened age the public will take notice, if your valued sportin' page neglects to mention one who has riz up to fame so high—The Checker Cyclone, which the same is Yours sincerely, Si.

Political Calendar

The change in Vermont's election of State and County officers and State Senators and Representatives in the General Assembly in November and, instead of September, has brought a large number of important dates into the political calendar. The St. Johnsbury Republican calls attention to them as follows:—

September 14—First day for filing nominations for State, District and county offices.

October 3—Check list must be posted, first day for filing nominations for Representatives and Justices. Last day for filing nominations for State, District and County offices.

October 14—First day for posting warning.

October 22—Last day for posting warning. Last day for candidates to withdraw.

October 24—Last day to object for defects in nomination.

October 26—Last day for filing nominations for Representatives and Justices.

October 28—Nominations must be posted.

October 29—Ballots must be ready for inspection by candidates.

October 31—Last chance to get name on check list.

November 3—Election day.

Make Work Easier

Morrisville People Are Pleased to Learn How It Has Been Done

It's pretty hard to attend to duties With a constantly aching back; With annoying urinary disorders. Doan's Kidney Pills have made work easier. So thousands have gratefully testified. They're for bad backs. They're for weak kidneys. Morrisville people gratefully recommend Doan's.

G. E. Tift, Elmore St., Morrisville, says:—"Doan's Kidney Pills have been of more benefit to me than any other medicine I have ever used for my kidneys. I have taken them during the past two years for weakness and lameness in my back and they have helped me wonderfully. My work obliges me to do much heavy lifting and my kidneys were affected in that way. Three boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills relieved me and restored my kidneys to their proper working order."

Price 50 cents at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same Mr. Tift had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y. Adv.

MIXED METAPHOR.

A Choice Bunch of "Bulls" From the House of Commons.

There is no place like the house of commons for a "nice derangement of metaphors." It will be a long time before we have a "mixture" equal to the outburst of an effusive orator who said, "The British lion, whether it is roaming the deserts of India or climbing the forests of Canada, will not draw in its horns or retire into its shell."

It recalls the famous "bull" made by Sir William Hart-Dyke, the Unionist ex-minister, who caused uproarious laughter in the house of commons one day by remarking: "The right honorable gentleman has caught big fish in his time. He has gone to the top of the tree to find them."

Alluding to an item of £2,000,000 in the army estimates one year, a certain member described it as "a flea bite in the ocean," while another, advocating an increase in the European troops employed in India, remarked, "You may depend upon it, sir, the pale face of the British soldier is the backbone of the Indian army."

An Irish member speaking of suicide said, "The only way to stop it is to make it a capital offense, punishable with death." It was the same member who assured the house that "as long as Ireland was silent under her wrongs England was deaf to her cries," while it was during a debate on the scandal of packed juries during the Irish troubles that a member in support of the government exclaimed, "By trial by jury have I lived, and, by the blessing of God, with trial by jury I will die." There was a wild howl of delight, too, when some prosy member was careless enough to remark, "The time has come and is rapidly arriving," which is equal to the cry of the member who wished a motion was "at the bottom of the bottomless pit."—London Tit-Bits.

Consoling.

"Do you believe in long engagements?" "Of course. The longer a man is engaged, the less time he has to be married."

He Looked Too Long.

An Italian astronomer has demonstrated that the moon is oval-shaped.

For Rust Stains.

For removing ink stains and iron rust from wash goods, cream of tartar is excellent. Dampen with solution and put in the sun.

WHAT WAR MEANS.

Wanton Destruction May Mark the Progress of an Army.

"All is fair in love and war," runs the old saying, and Mr. E. A. Vizetelly in his volume of reminiscences, "My Days of Adventure," proves the truth of it. Referring to the appearance of the railway station at Nantes during the Franco-German war, he says:

"Never since have I seen anything resembling it. A thousand panes of glass belonging to windows or roofing had been shattered to atoms. Every mirror in either waiting or refreshment rooms had been pounded to pieces, every gilt frame broken into little bits. The clock lay about in small fragments; account books and printed forms had been torn to scraps; partitions, chairs, tables, benches, boxes, nests of drawers, had been hacked, split, broken, reduced to mere strips of wood; the large stoves were overturned and broken, and the marble refreshment counter, some thirty feet long and previously one of the features of the station, now strewn the floor in particles, suggesting gravel. It was indeed an amazing sight, the more amazing as no such work of destruction could have been accomplished without extreme labor."

"When we returned to the inn for dinner I asked some questions."

"Who did it?"

"The first German troops that came here," was the answer.

"Why did they do it? Was it because your men had cut the telegraph wires and destroyed some of the permanent way?"

"Oh, no! They expected to find something to drink in the refreshment room, and when they discovered that everything had been taken away they set about breaking the fixtures."

Easy When You Know How

The Lamoille County National Bank was organized May 21, 1855. It commences its sixtieth year of business with assurance to its many customers, present and prospective, that it was never in better condition to serve the public than it is to-day. Its Banking methods are broad-gauged and liberal. It extends to its customers every facility and accommodation consistent with safe banking.

It has been more than twenty-five years since any customer of this Bank was declined accommodations, however large the amount asked for, if the paper offered came within the restrictions of the banking law. Any one keeping an account at the old Lamoille County National Bank knows that he need never inquire whether the Bank can or cannot accommodate him—the Bank always has money to accommodate every depositor; indeed, it doesn't decline an application from any one who brings satisfactory paper.

The Board of Directors are all men well known to the business public as among the most careful, reliable and substantial business men of this vicinity. They include, besides the officers named below, Hon. Isaac L. Pearl of Johnson, Hon. Herbert F. Brigham of Bakersfield and Levi V. Smilie, Esq., of Cambridge.

It has come to be the custom of our most progressive and up-to-date farmers to pay their bills by check. This bank furnishes the blank checks and other necessary stationery and equipment free of charge. Anyone receiving a check in payment of a bill must write his name across the back of the check before he can get his money from the bank. The check is sent by the bank to the party who drew the check and is the best possible evidence of the payment of the debt. Anyone desiring to open an account with the Lamoille County National Bank is requested to write to Cashier Noyes or call upon him. He will be happy to explain all the details and answer any interrogatories.
